for every family

IN PRAISE OF...

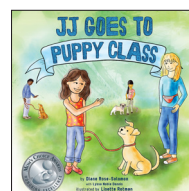

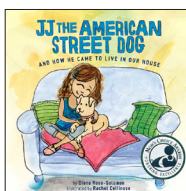

“By far the most comprehensive resource to aid in searching and caring for your next best friend. It has all the tools new pet parents need to welcome their newest family member, and the power to help minimize the number of dogs surrendered to shelters.”

—Billy Calhoun, Pet Adoption Manager, LA Love and Leashes

“I’m so impressed and truly excited about this book. It’s a much needed resource for shelters, rescues, bloggers, and anyone interested in or considering a ‘new’ pet in their home. There is a wealth of information and Diane Rose-Solomon’s insight into pet adoption and successful homing of a new dog into your family, is outstanding”

—Yvonne DiVita, Co-Founder of BlogPaws, Woman of the Year,
Women in the Pet Industry Network

Diane is the award-winning author of the JJ-American Street Dog series.
